Oslo 05-06-06

NorPeace hereby nominate Alexander Harang as Council member.

This is what he writes:

Mr Alexander Harang
President of the Norwegian Peace Association
Board Member of the Norwegian Peace Alliance

I am the leader of the fastest growing peace organisation in Norway. I am also very much involved in the umbrella organisation for the Norwegian peace organisations, called The Norwegian Peace Alliance. I am an active board member there, and I am elected IPB contact for the Norwegian peace organisations by the peace alliance last annual congress. I have worked at NorPeace as policy manager from September 2003 until October 2005. I started and still lead the peace alliance arms trade information group. I have represented the Norwegian peace movement abroad on several occasions, for example in the OSCE network, Pro- UNCOPAC, EN-CPS, EPLO and at the UNGA (as an official observer with the Norwegian UN delegation).

I am willing to serve as Council member at the IPB from September 2006.

Signed:

Alexander Harang

The Norwegian Peace Alliance (hereafter NFR) is a service organisation for Norwegian peace organisations. It provides a meeting place, information, and service for its 30 members. Through working groups the NFR arranges seminars and conferences, and carries out projects on peace, human rights and reconciliation. The NFR works with network building on a national and international level, and seeks to influence policy makers on behalf of its member organisations. The NFR is the Oslo Office for the International Peace Bureau and is active partner within the European Network for Civil Peace Services and is member of the Nonviolent Peaceforce Europe.
