

MAKING PEACE – COMMENTS RECEIVED

BEFORE THE OPENING DAY

'Very impressive'
Dr Antonia Young, Bradford Univ.

'This looks creatively interesting'
Cora Weiss, Hague Appeal for Peace

'My congratulations to all at IPB on this momentous anniversary!'
Jayantha Dhanapala, President Pugwash movement.

'This is a great event and we would sure like to support it by all means.'
Fadoua Amer, Alexandria library, Egypt

'Given that we're having a week's peace festival here in Manchester in September, I feel that it would be most appropriate to show the exhibition here at some point. This week, I'll talk to the others in steering committee'.
Ann Jordan - indiv member UK

'It would be perfect for outdoors at Millennium Park (Chicago). I had a huge show there summer of 2005....It will be good to have a PDF of the show that I can pass along'. Terry Evans, prof. photographer

Congratulations! I will forward to those I know in Geneva. If it were possible to show it in NY (and maybe this is something the NGO Committee could try to co-sponsor) I'd be happy to investigate the possibilities for future...Allison Pytlak, Religions for Peace

C'est génial ce que vous allez faire le weekend du 5-6 juin 2010 & CONGRATULATIONS on your Nobel peace prize centenary!!
Annigna Gerig, Geneva

Congratulation for this excellent initiative! In the mean time, I would like to know whether there is any room for us to be part of such an excellent event.
Gopal Krishna Siwakoti, President, INHURED International, Kathmandu

Will it be possible to offer this exhibition during our forum at the end of october 23 in Florence?
Cristano Franceschini, Assoc Kipling, Italy

'Que gran evento!' Amada Benavides, Escuela de la paz, Bogota.

I would like to congratulate IPB on the occasion of the centenary of the Nobel Peace Prize.
Roger Mayou, International Museum of the Red Cross and Red Crescent

Well done. This is a great initiative. I am sorry I can't be there with you for the launch on June 6.
Alyn Ware, Cordinator, PNND

I'm most impressed with all the plans for the 6th of June. ..All good wishes to you all--and congratulations to the IPB.
David Atwood, Quaker UN Office, Geneva

Very nice. Great job and congratulations!!!
Bruce Roth, Daisy Alliance, USA

MAKING PEACE : nice plan - I will go
Yorio Shiokawa, Human rights activist, Japan

This is great! I have not yet looked in detail at every image, or read all the texts, but it is impressive.

Peter van Dungen, Secretary, Intl Network of Peace Museums

Thank you for sending me the particulars about your extensive programme for the weekend. Sadly I can't be there, but I have allowed myself to forward your message to a friend in Geneva who might be interested, as she is studying international affairs. The exhibition sounds interesting and I have also forwarded details to a colleague here. It would be most interesting to show it in the fortress here if possible and I am eager to hear his reaction. All the best for your grand weekend.

James Ronald Archer, Town archivist, Halden, Norway

Very impressive piece of work. Are you thinking of publishing it as a book?
Steve Archer, London.

AFTER THE EVENT:

'Il n'y a pas de chemin pour la paix, la paix est le chemin' (M. Gandhi). Bravo aux organisateurs de ce 'parcours', pour une initiative qui a beaucoup de valeur, tant par le processus que par le résultat, et qui permet intelligemment de faire connaître un volet essentiel de la Genève internationale.

Pierre Maudet, Conseiller administratif de la Ville de Genève

I wish for another century of peace, thanks to IPB
Caroline Schwab, Geneva World Peace

Bravo pour cette magnifique organisation et pour tous les contacts réalisés!
Lean-Luc Pitter, Terre des Hommes Suisse

Thank you for including us in your event. It was the first time we, as an organization, were involved in an event in central Geneva and this morning when went through our usual evaluation process we decided it was an experience we would be delighted to repeat again.
Lisa Ross-Magenty, Interpeace

It is a pleasure for me to send you my congratulations for the beautiful and impressive work done in Geneva especially with the exposition.
Fulgida Barattoni, IPB-Italia

Congratulations for this wonderful activity we were so proud to launch last week-end in Geneva and thanks for the good time we shared altogether .
Prof. Alicia Cabezudo, Argentina

J'ai trouvé votre travail très impressionnant !
Aline Ammann, School for International Training, Geneva

Merci beaucoup pour ce long chemin que vous avez fait, surtout pour les références à tous et à toutes qui luttent pour la paix.

Colette Samoya, Bangwe et dialogue (Paix et Nonviolenace dans la région des Grands Lacs)

Great work !

Rainer Santi, former Secretary-General, IPB

Très belle exposition. Il faut continuer...beaucoup de travail nous attend – désarmement, développement, écologie...etc.

Gérard Halie, Mouvement de la paix, France

Thank you for the great work. I am greatly impressed with the peace and unit work.

Justine Namara, WTO

L'équipe de la Fondation est ravie d'avoir été invitée à ce bel événement.

Aurélia Carré, Fondation Yves Rocher

Congratulations on a remarkable event. Can't wait to get that display in London.

Bruce Kent, Vice-President, CND

I had a nice stroll down the lake yesterday and wanted to congratulate you and your IPB crew on the excellent photography exhibition in front of Palais Wilson. Very nicely done. A very moving selection of images, quotes and contextual information. Much food for thought (and hopefully action).

Adam Cowling, Geneva

Congratulations for a beautiful exposition ! You deserve all the support in the world - keep it up! warm greetings,

Elly Pradervand & team, WWSF

J'étais content d'être avec vous et de partager ces moments avec tout le monde. J'ai bien discuté avec les autres organisations et ça m'encourage à m'impliquer davantage dans ce qui se fait de beau et de noble. Je pense venir à Oslo avec vous.

Augustin Tabo , Tchad/Paris
