

SÉAN MACBRIDE PEACE PRIZE
CEREMONY

INTERNATIONAL
SIGNATURE CAMPAIGN
IN SUPPORT OF THE APPEAL OF THE HIBAKUSHA

Wednesday, 17th March 2021

17.00 JST/Tokyo, 9.00 CET

Registration here & under ipb.org

THE SIGNATURE CAMPAIGN WAS LAUNCHED BY HIDANKYO IN 2016 IN THE NAME OF PROMINENT HIBAKUSHA OF HIROSHIMA & NAGASAKI. ONE OF THE LARGEST SIGNATURE CAMPAIGNS WORLDWIDE, IT REPRESENTS A POWERFUL FORCE MANIFESTING GLOBAL DEMANDS FOR THE COMPLETE ELIMINATION OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS.

PROGRAMME

Opening and Welcome

by IPB Co-President Lisa Clark &
Board Member Rieko Asato

Moderation by IPB Ex. Director
Reiner Braun

Laudatio by IPB Co-President
Philip Jennings

Address by HIDANKYO Co-Chair
Terumi Tanaka

Sean MacBride, IPB Chairman (1968-74) and President (1974-85), began his career as a fighter against British colonial rule, studied law and rose to high office in the independent Irish Republic. Winner of the Lenin Peace Prize, and the Nobel Peace Prize (1974), he inspired IPBs annual award for outstanding work on Peace and Disarmament.